

'Geopolitical Risk Is Now a Core Procurement Competency'

The Rise of Geopolitics as Key Risk for Procurement

What is Required to Address this Fundamental Change?

Geopolitical Risk Management is a Core Procurement Competency

STRUCTURED VISIBILITY BEYOND TIER 1

Understanding key suppliers' sources geographically

SCENARIO PLANNING

Designing robust strategies across plausible ranges

BALANCE COST OPTIMISATION WITH DIVERSIFICATION

Consciously choosing geographic diversification

CONTINUOUS RISK MONITORING

Enabling to monitor, assess, and act continuously

OUTCOME: ROBUST SOURCING STRATEGIES, UPSTREAM RISK MONITORING, AND CAPABILITY TO ADDRESS GEOPOLITICAL RISKS PROACTIVELY

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

If geopolitical risk is not explicitly factored into your sourcing strategies and supplier portfolio design, your supply chain is exposed to significant hidden risks, putting you in a tough spot once those risks materialize.
